A true golden ticket for the clients of Jérémy Vosse and his teams, who will be treated like royalty in the most luxurious locations on the planet . They now have access to a wide range of resources, including an exclusive selection of services, upgrades, and access to extraordinary products and experiences. Thanks to its excellent reputation and expertise in the luxury sector, Premium Conciergerie joins the exclusive circle of Virtuoso travel agencies in France, and also becomes the first concierge service to be a Virtuoso member in the country.

Virtuoso is the world's leading network of travel agencies specializing in luxury . Accessible only by invitation, Virtuoso maintains privileged relationships with more than 1,800 leading hotels and resorts, cruise lines, airlines, tour operators, and destinations.

Thanks to its Virtuoso affiliation, Premium Conciergerie is able to offer its clients VIP treatment and complimentary additional services (preferential availability and rates, room upgrades upon arrival, subject to availability, flexible check-in times, free Wi-Fi, preferential airfares and services, etc.). Premium Conciergerie thus adds another string to its bow by guaranteeing an even higher level of service when organizing business or personal trips for its members.

About Premium Concierge

With a strong focus on the well-being and satisfaction of its members—including top athletes, VIPs from prestigious brands, as well as prominent figures in the arts, culture, and intellectual spheres, and business executives—Premium Concierge has, in just a few years, positioned itself among the leaders in its category.

One of its primary functions is to facilitate members' daily lives by acting as a personal assistant (for everyday tasks) or as a coordinator (for event planning).

At home, at work, while traveling, or on vacation, members benefit from the concierge service for any need they may have.

From a simple desire to the wildest dream, Premium Concierge always has a solution in mind to fulfill requests.
